FAMILY BIBLE OF LEVI PEARCE

This Bible belonged to Rev. Levi Pearce who was a circuit riding Methodist Preacher in early Hillsborough County. He lived at Alafia and served as a Corporal in the Florida Mounted Volunteers during the Indian Wars. He enrolled Feb. 17, 1857 and was discharged on August 7, 1859 at Fort Brooke, Florida. The cover of the Bible was lost in a fire and was partly burned but the part with the family records was saved. It is in the possession of Mrs. Annie Pearce, daughter-in-law of Rev. Pearce. She was born Aug. 26, 1887 and married Levi's youngest son, Charles W. Pearce.
