

Freeman Caruthers (Farrier)	John Johnson, Cpl.	Henry S. Seward
John Carney	John T. Lesley, Cpl.	Zachariah Seward, Sr.
John Davidson, Cpl.	Emory L. Lesley (Bugler)	Zachariah Seward
Octavius Drew	Levi Long	Felix Seward
Wilson Dyches	Nathaniel Long	Cornelius Seals
Joseph Eady	James T. Long	Robt. R. Shepherd, Sgt.
John E. Fuel	Joel L. Lockhart	David Summerall
Francis Ferguson	Oswald Lang	John Vickers
John B. Gunthers	David Main	Wm. B. Varn
James L. Gay	Joseph Mizell	Josiah Varn
Gideon Hague	Enoch Mizell	Antoine Wordehoff, Cpl.
James F. Handcock	James M. Manley	James Whidden
Martin J. Handcock	Sherod B. McGuire (Sgt.)	Noah Whidden
Jordan Handcock	Alfred Nobles	Willoughby Whidden, Jr.
Edward B. Halliday	Hiram Newberry	Wm. H. Willingham
James D. Haygood (Bugler)	John C. Oats	Wm. J. Willingham
Henry R. Hill	Alex. W. Ormond	Andrew Wiggins
John E. Hickey	Wm. W. Paget	James R. Wiggins
Joseph Hutchinson	George W. Price, Sgt.	Wm. H. Williams
James B. Hogan	William P. Rogers ✓	David White
George Hambleton	James W. Rawls	David S. Whitehurst
Samuel S. Harris	Thomas Sherley	John Whitehurst
		Robt. T. Whitehurst
		Thomas Mitchell

DAVID BRANNON 1831-1862

David Brannon (Brannan) was born in Florida (county not known) in 1831. In Hillsborough County, Fla., on January 1, 1852, he married Miss Susan Whidden. She was born March 5, 1840, daughter of Maxfield Whidden and Sophia P. Crews. Their children:

1. Maxfield Brannon, born 1853; married Cornelia Sellers in Manatee County on May 16, 1872.
2. Eley P. Brannon, born 1856; married Emily Augusta "Gussie" Mathis (Matthews) on January 13, 1873 in Manatee County. She was the daughter of James Washington Mathis (Matthews) and Mary Ann Williams.
3. Sophia Brannon, born 1860
4. Emily Brannon, born 1862; married in Manatee County on Aug. 19, 1875 Miner T. Bond.

During the Seminole Indian Wars, David was a private in Captain William B. Hooker's company of volunteer militia. He was mustered in on Jan. 3, 1856. He and family later homesteaded in the Wauchula, Zolfo Springs & Crewsville areas of Manatee (later Hardee) County. In the 1860 census, they were living near David J. W. Boney (who married Susan's older sister, Lydia Whidden), D. D. Crews, Sr. (brother of Mrs. Sophia P. Crews Whidden), Ely Whidden (brother of Mrs. Susan Whidden Brannon), Maxfield & Susan Whidden, Mrs. Mary Ann Matthews & Henry Lankford.

David Brannan was a private in Capt. Blount's Company of Confederate Army which later became Company "E", 7th Florida Infantry, CSA. He