JOHN J. PEARCE 1808-1878

Researched, compiled & contributed by Mrs. Margaret Pearce Pasteur, 4314 SW 22nd St., Ocala, Fla. 32670.

Preface: Have you ever lived by a family or have you ever known one in the family that you felt was neglected. This is sort of the way I feel about John J. Pearce. For a long time I found out very little about him, but I was always finding materials written about his brother, Levi Pearce. As I tried to find more about him, I became even more distressed. It seems that he had no boys, only girls. It is so difficult to find a family especially when you have to do it through another name. As this man's history began to fall in place, there was just no one to keep his memory alive. Even his middle initial is not certain. I found the name John Jonathan Pearce once, and I am always leery about one item being used as evidence or proof of something. Since there are so many "Johns" in the Pearce family, I use the letter "J" to help identify him and it is very likely that he could have been named after his Uncle Jonathan Cain. (Mrs. Pasteur is editor of The Pearce Family Newsletter).

John J. Pearce was born during the year 1808 in Georgia. He was the son of John and Ann (Cain) Pearce. Nothing is known of his childhood. If you used your imagination, you could say he was "reared" on a farm. He had two brothers, James and Levi, that were Methodist ministers. On Dec. 1, 1831 in Camden County, Georgia John J. Pearce married Mary Mizell daughter of David and Nancy Mizell and sister to James C. Pearce's wife, Elizabeth. Their children:

1. Elizabeth Pearce, born June 5, 1838; married Bertrand Bledsoe in Hillsborough County on 23 Feb. 1860.
2. Sarah Ann Pearce, born 1841; married Burzilla Wood in Hills. Co. on Jan. 20, 1867.
