

Carlton. In 1863, Jesse Alderman along with Thomas Albritton were appraisers of the estate of Stephen P. Hooker, who died during the Civil War. On July 15, 1869, Jesse was listed on a roll of persons between the ages of 18 to 45 years who were liable for military duty in Manatee County. He was listed in the 1870 Manatee County census in Township 36, probably in the Brownville area. Some of his neighbors in the 1880 census were Dan G. Graham, F. B. Hagan, Jeff Daniels, Enoch E. Mizell and James D. Green.

On July 19, 1882, Jesse Alderman purchased 80 acres of land at 30¢ per acre from the Internal Improvement Fund of Florida. This land was located in E½ of NE¼ of section 19, Township 36, Range 25 which was just across the Peace River from Brownville.

Manatee County tax records show that in 1884 Jesse paid taxes on 150 cattle and in 1886 he paid them on 50 cattle.

Jesse applied for a pension on March 30, 1893 based on his Indian War service. He gave his age as 66 years and his residence as Calvinia, DeSoto County, Florida. On Nov. 19, 1896, Albert J. Hendry provided a deposition stating that he had served with Jesse in Capt. Hooker and Capt. Lesley's companies.

Jesse and Adaline Alderman were listed in the Arcadia area in the 1900 DeSoto County census. Living at home were William Alderman, age 32 and Miram Alderman, age 24. Adaline stated that she had given birth to ten children but that only seven were living at that time.

On July 18, 1902 Jesse applied for additional benefits to his pension based on the act of June 27, 1902 passed by Congress. He was receiving $16.00 per month when he died on June 6, 1908. He was buried in Joshua Creek Cemetery and his grave is unmarked. Adeline (Prine) Alderman apparently died between July 18, 1902 and June 6, 1908 since she did not apply for a widow's pension.
